Clubs

Broome Offers More Than Just Academics

In order to take a little relaxation from the busy, and usually hectic academic workload at BCC, a great deal of Broome's students take advantage of the Student Activities which the college has to offer.

At the helm of Student Activities is the United Student Government. It is the one college institution where there is progress despite bureaucracy. The executive officers and the 19 members which create the Senate take it upon themselves to protect and promote the individual rights of the student body. Together with its many committees such as budget committee and the Judicial Review Board, the students are in excellent. In addition the U.S.G., the Media Board keep the college population well informed and entertained throughout the year. Thanks to the Fulcrum, the Citadel, and WROX the monumental events of the various semesters are well noted and documented.

Clubs serve an extensive variety of student interests and motivations which propel the greatest part of student activity during the school year. With the club council governing the actions and funding of all the clubs on campus, the growth of Broome's 30 clubs is tremendous during the year. Among the variety of organizations are clubs which are directly related to degree-granting programs such as Business Club, Chemistry Club, Civil Technology Association, Dental Hygiene Associations, I.E.E.E., Lively Arts Club, Mechanical Technology/S.M.E., Medical Laboratory Technology Club, Radiologic X-Ray Club, and the Student Nurses Association. Many organizations are associated with specific programs or sources which B.C.C. offers, thus, giving the student an opportunity to familiarize himself/ herself in a particular field of interest. Included in this category are the Art & Design Club, BCC College Choir, and the Instrumental Music Association.

No college campus is complete without its group of service clubs such as the Adult Club, Circle K, Emergency Squad, Inmate Education Club, International Student Organization, Minority Student Organization, and Phi Theta Kappa.

For those students who have a certain area of interest or hobby, BCC has the Aviation Club, Camera Club, Campus Bible Fellowship, Outing Club, Ski Club, and Chess Club. These organizations allow the students to escape totally from academic responsibilities and just have fun.

Finally, under the heading of Student Activities, Broome has a variety of noncompetitive athletic clubs including the Cheerleaders, Scuba Club, and Weightlifting.

Therefore, if you have some extra time to devote to a Student Activity, we urge you to join one or two or . . .

United Student Government

United Student Government is perhaps the most influential student organization on campus. The major responsibility of this organization is to protect and promote the rights and responsibilities of the student body. The U.S.G. senate is comprised of 19 members who are representatives of areas under U.S.G. jurisdiction. The elected officers of United Student Government are the President, the Vice President for Internal Affairs, the Vice President for External Affairs, the Vice President for Financial Affairs, and the Student Trustee. These elected officers make up the Executive Board. The remaining members of the Senate consist of Senior and Freshman Class Representatives; the Business, Health Sciences, Liberal Arts, and Technologies Representatives; and the Club Council, IAAC, Media Board, and Program Board Representatives.

They also make minor decisions concerning Club Council Senate, consolidate ideas before presenting them to the Senate, and make sure decisions made by the Senate are carried out. Executive Board is the major link between the campus clubs and United Student Government.

Program Board

The Program Board consists of several students who run different types of events, such as mixers, dinner dances, the Spring Picnic, Winter Carnival at the Pines Resort, speakers, and various other cultural and off-campus events. It is the responsibility of the programmer to plan, organize, and run each event. The man in charge of the Program Board is Mr. Mac Gregor, Director of Student Activities.

It also provides those involved with an interesting learning experience concerning all aspects involved in the production of a newspaper.

The College yearbook is offered as not only a keepsake but as an up-to-date reference guide of the numerous clubs, activities, and events that are offered through BCC. Any student can become a part of the yearbook staff which offers its members the opportunity to participate in photography, layout, sports coverage, typing, writing copy, interviewing, and learning the basic fundamentals of publishing a yearbook. Along with all of these opportunities each person is able to become involved with many aspects of BCC.

The Audio Media Club functions just as its title suggests. Their main influences on campus is found in the Student Center. The Broome Community College radio station, WROX (formerly WBCC), is organized and run by the Audio Media Club and their advisor, John Butchko. The club provides an opportunity for students interested, to get a taste of what "d-jing" is all about. A student has his own show, selects what music is played and runs advertisements. The opportunity to work with radio station equipment will prove invaluable to a student pursuing life as a disc jockey. The future hopes to find the radio station broadcasting within a 3-4 mile radius of the campus as well as having the station piped into buildings on BCC's campus.

Camera Club

Members: Bill Cooper, Jay Earl, Sue Kuharik, Mike Margarone, Dwayne McIver, Kurt Nelson, Tal Shechter, George Spisak, Sharon Swartz, Denise Tanzini, Shiela Tanzini, Jim Vantuso, Sandy Westgate, Jeff Winterstein, John Young, Advisor.

Camera Club serves to aid and further the knowledge of photography for its members. Each year, the club's advisor, John Young, offers a complete basic course in photography. Starting with learning to use a good, adjustable camera, the club's members are taken, step by step, thru lenses, filters, photographic composition, black and white film emulsions, developing film, printing from negatives, lighting, working with a live model, processing both color slide and color negative film and then printing from same, and an introduction to video and video production. Members may borrow such photo equipment as cameras, lenses, filters, flash units, lighting kits, and tripods. They also have the use of a fully equipped darkroom. Meeting dates are established to allow the greatest number of interested people to attend. Anyone with an interest in photography, experience or not, is welcome — our only criteria is the desire to learn about photography.

Adult Club

The Adult Club was founded and designed to be of benefit to people who have been away from the academic scene for varying lengths of time. The companionship and moral support of men and women of similar ages and backgrounds is the main purpose of our club. We also offer quiet study areas, informal discussion groups, and recreational activities suited to appeal to the more mature student.

College Choir eagerly met many challenges during the 1981-82 academic year. While most campus clubs were open only to students, we provide students and community singers with a refreshing chance to mingle. Together we worked hard at rehearsals and had a lot of fun too. We sang at many churches, including: St. Patricks, St. Pauls, Main Street Baptist Church, and our most thrilling annual Messiah Christmas concert at Central United Methodist Church. For this big event, we combined the Chancel Choir of Central and a professional orchestra. This is not all. We sang at Hilltop Retirement Home, the Oakdale Mall, and participated in Community College Week. We also had our annual spring concert. For 1983, we look forward to our bi-annual concert tour in Williamsburg, Virginia and a concert at the Washington, D.C., Cathedral as well as our local concerts. Those of us who are 1982 graduates hope to continue singing wherever we may be. To all of you who will be in the area, feel free to join in the fun every Monday from 8-10 p.m. in T101.

Activities

The Freshman Picnic was held on August 27, 1981. It was an opportunity for new students, unfamiliar with the campus, to get acquainted with the layout of the buildings, meet with advisors and professors in their course of study and to meet with other students sharing the same experience of coming into a new environment. The day proved worthwhile. BCC President Donald Beattie and other vice-presidents introduced themselves, students met with faculty and the remainder of the day was reserved for a picnic and beer, balloon rides, Simon Sez, and music by Nexus.

Breaking in the New

A Little Bit of Italy At BCC

The 1981 Adult Club's Spaghetti Dinner was an enjoyable evening with great food, socializing and music by the Rhythm Katz.

Family Fun

An event of fun was available for the whole family at the Adult Club's Adult Picnic. The relaxed atmosphere was highlighted by games for young and old, good home cooking and friendly people.

There's a Bad Moon on the Rise

Halloween night at Broome Community College was the site for the annual Halloween Mixer. Jon David's Mood played the tunes and students decked out in costumes from appropriate vampires and witches to not so ordinary field hockey players and six-packs, were given an early opportunity to forget about the rigors of the first semester. Everyone had a good time figuring out who was who, laughing when they finally found out and few surely went "trick or treating" after the campus festivities were over and done.

Let's Get Away

The BCC Program Board each year presents the Winter Carnival at the Pines Resort in South Fallsburg, New York. Funded through your Student Activities Fee, this 3 day — 2 night extravaganza is held normally during the second week in January. Included with the nominal reservation fee is 6 meals, bus transportation, live dance music/nightclub entertainment, cocktail party, keg party and skiing, skating, swimming as well as tennis. The years past has witnessed everyone going, coming back with little but praise for the fun time. Reservations are usually scheduled early because of the demand of students wishing to go. This year's event was no different. Those who did manage a few hours sleep still returned tired. Everyone had a rip roarin' time and really were not anxious to get back to school.

Raindrops Keep Fallin' on my Head

The 1982 Spring Picnic, scheduled for Tuesday, April 27, broke with cloudy skies, cool temperatures and a few drops of rain here and there. Putting all the money in the bank, it was postponed until the following day . . .

The interest paid off!

Wednesday saw sunny skies and warmer temperatures. For all those attending, the picnic at Chenango Valley State Park was a wonderful wrapup to a long academic semester. The beer (all 16 half kegs) was cold, there was plenty of food and "Dice" provided a good afternoon of rock n' roll. The thousands of students present played frisbee, softball, football, drank and danced the afternoon away. Spring Picnic mugs were an appropriate souvenir for a good time to be remembered.

The Banquet, organized by Vice-President of Student Affairs (Internal) John Quain, was designed to give recognition to advisor and contributors to USG and the various clubs and organizations on campus. First on the agenda was a cocktail hour proceeded by a ham and roast beef dinner. After dinner, dessert was served while award winners were recognized. Following the conclusion of the awards ceremony, music and dancing were offered. The music was provided by "Sound Around". Everyone attending was deserving of their recognition and the banquet was a great success. Students who added to the reputation of Broome Community College had a chance to Congregate and celebrate their accomplishments.

On the way to Success

The Phi Theta Kappa Academic Awards Dinner was held on May 1, 1982 at the Broome Community College Student Center Cafeteria. Awards night started with cocktails at 7 followed by a buffet dinner catered by Deru Management Services, Inc. After dinner Dr. Donald W. Beattie gave the introductory remarks and then the speaker for the evening, Honorable Carl S. Young, spoke to the award winners, their families, and guests. Next came the highlight of the evening with the awards presented to each winner for their outstanding academic achievements.

We're Havin' A Party

Every month, BCC's Program Board sponsors a mixer. They are held in the cafeteria of the Student Center and are open to all Broome Community College students and a minimum number of registered guests. Their purpose is a social gathering for the campus to get together and mingle among each other. Each mixer has live music (this year's bands included Todd Hobin, John David's Mood, Tokyo, and Brotherhood), plenty of beer and wine, and popcorn to munch on. The tables are cleared and a dance floor encourages students to "cut the rug." All mixers are held either on a Friday or Saturday night from 9:00 p.m. to 12 midnight. It is a good opportunity to make contacts and have a good time with other people on campus.

A Little Tassle For A Lot Of Hassle

As the Binghamton Youth Symphony Orchestra struck up the first few notes of the traditional processional, (Pomp and Circumstance), the anarchy among the graduates who had been waiting anxiously outside the Arena, in the usual Binghamton gloom, quickly calmed down into an organized, festive pagentry.

Following the graduates' proud tribute to our Country, through the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, and Father William Jones' Invocation of Thanksgiving, the class received the gratitude, congratulations, and applause from Dr. Donald W. Beattie and Dr. John A. Manzari on behalf of the college and its Board of Directors.

David Schoenbrun, an internationally-famed news commentator, then updated Thomas Payne's pamphlet, Common Sense, into a reflective work that is relevant to America in the 1980s. With the completion of the keynote address, the symphony orchestra played a musical selection which was followed by still another speech delivered by Suzy Goguen, a former U.S.G. President, and then by Diana Kloss, who presented the "Timeless" class gift (a clock). Still yet another speaker, Ruth Gdovin, welcomed the graduates into the College Alumni Association. At last, the crescendoing anxieties of the graduates reached its climax with the presentation of degrees. As each curriculum group was called to receive their diplomas, the groups' personalities were depicted to its peers through its elaborate hats and masquarades.

At the conclusion of the Reverend C. James Jones' benediction, the orchestra begun to play the recessional and following the departure of the members off the platform, the gaudates proudly marched out of the Arena floor to an upstairs passageway where they willingly exchanged their graduation vestments for their diplomas. Then, the masses started their retreat back to the College Student Center for a reception.

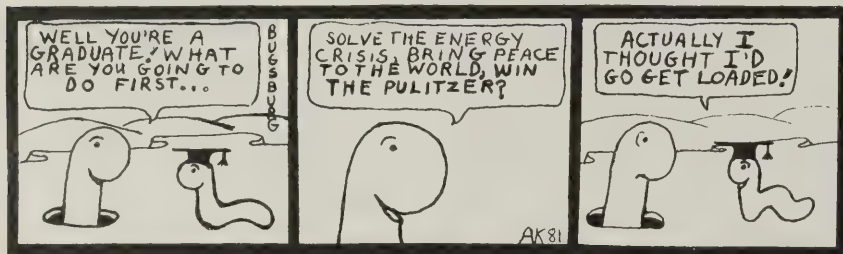

And Now We Move On . . .

Time for Celebrating

On the night of Graduation, after all the formality was over, there was a reception in the Student Center for all Graduates, family, and friends. Karen Montgomery organized the evening with a buffet of salads, cheeses, meatballs, crackers, and chips, and with excellent music for all to dance to by the Rhythm Katz. The evening was a great success filled with good times, friends, and celebrating.

Defeat was inevitable for Male Hoopsters

Coming into the 1981-82 basketball season coach Dick Baldwin brought with him a 30-4 record from last season and 34 years of other winning records. What he was met with when he walked onto the court for tryouts this fall was an inexperienced college team. He had only two returning players, Glenn McIver and Randy Nash, from last year. The rest were ball players from all over New York State and good players in their own right. As the season progressed, the BCC team was subjected to many injuries and academic problems that whittled away at the morale and players of the team. Coach Baldwin and Assistant Coach Caverly will be back, though, next year to put away his only losing record here at BCC.

The 1981-82 Hornet wrestlers tackled a demanding schedule and gave a good of themselves although finishing 7-12. The Hornet wrestlers also competed in six tournaments (Syracuse Open, Delhi Invitational, Hawk Invitational, Wilkes Opens, Keystone Invitational, and Northeastern Zone Championships). During the dual meet season, the Hornets upset highly regarded Herkimer and Fulton-Montgomery, both regionally ranked.

The wrestling schedule included the nation's top ranked junior college team, Delhi, twice, 10th ranked Jamestown, and 19th ranked Keystone. The Hornets also competed against nationally ranked Glouster (N.J.) and Cayahoga (Ohio) West during their tournaments.

As senior Steve Dombrowski became a two-time region place-winner, Senior Ken Gay, Senior Mike Fetcinko, and Freshman Mike Welsh won Laurals as Academic All Americans with Ken Gay sporting a 4.0 average. As the 1981-82 team was quite young, the 1982-83 team will return 7 starters and looks quite promising.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Hornets of Broome Community College completed a very successful Basketball season with a 10 and 6 record. They were led throughout the season by high scorer and senior Beth Herrick. Beth, who is considered by many to be a true team player, showed consistency and dedication to a growing program here at the college. Diann Benowski in her first year at BCC was second in scoring and first in blocked shots. She improved with each and every game and will undoubtedly be one of the leaders in the region during the 82-83 campaign. Van Hughes stepped into the starting line up after the fourth game as a result of a knee injury to point guard Pat Harmalik who was lost for the entire season. Van, who saw limited playing time last year, really picked up the pace with her aggressive rebounding and all around team play. Van was considered to have been the most improved player on the team who will continue to show progress with increased playing time.

The starting team was only as good as the backcourt tandem of Michelle Parsons, a senior, and Mary Kay Farrell, a freshman. After the injury to Harmalik, Parsons and Farrell had to assume the ball handling responsibilities. They both proved their unselfishness as they continued to pick apart defenses while getting the ball to their teammates.

The reserves who consisted of Lori Harris, Carla Paccio, Laurie Stebbins, and Sue Barton were as tough as any in the region. They kept a very positive team attitude and did whatever was asked of them.

Overall, the Lady Hornets were considered a Cinderella team and received an invitation to the annual Region III tournament based on their respectable season record and outstanding attitude as representatives of BCC.

Ice Hockey

Hornet Hockey Nets a Trying Season

BCC's men's hockey team finished their third varsity season with a 7-8 record. The Hornets were led by Senior Bob Laszewski (18 goals, 11 assists, 29 points) and Freshman Bill Stoker (9 goals, 8 assists, 17 points).

Broome posted a 5-1 record before falling to five of the state's stronger teams. Goaltender Fran Cordisco went the distance playing in all fifteen games.

Six of the graduating seniors wrote their names into the record books by obtaining ranks among the varsity career point leaders: Bob Laszewski (1), Joe Wickham (4), Mark Rothwell (8), Bruce MacLeod (12), Scooter Young (13), and Keith Barney (15).

Bill Stoker was named "Rookie of the Year" and elected as Captain of next year's team. Karl Bielby, who finished with nine points in his last five games, was chosen as Assistant Captain of the 1982-83 Hornet team.

Women's Softball

Hornet Softballers Out-bat Competition

The Lady Hornets Softball Team at Broome Community College was unquestionably "great". We say this without any reservations and think any of the opponents would say the same. They finished the regular season with a 17-2 record, one of the best in the region, and were seeded third in the Region III Tournament at Erie Community College. The Lady Hornets, led by pitcher Rosemary Kalisak, a freshman from Brooklyn, N.Y., defeated Monroe CC in the opening round and then went on to beat a very worthy rival in Onodaga CC in the seventh inning 4-3 in the semi-final game. Having already pitched in two previous wins, Rosemary again pitched in the finals of the tournament against defending national champs of 1981 Erie CC and suffered her only defeat in 13 games by a score of 3-1. Rosemary was selected Most Valuable Pitcher of the tournament and along with Tracie Holobosky was selected to the all-tournament team.

This years team, which was comprised of mostly freshmen and only three seniors, prided itself on having a team concept that only comes from loving the game of softball. They were praised for having great spirit and hustle which are vital elements to winning. Seven of the players had been together on the Women's basketball team and carried on the winning ways and attitudes that often take years to develop. Although none of the girls were recruited and most of the talent came from the immediate area, it was proven that a winning team can emerge from a group of unheralded athletes. Michelle Parsons, one of the few seniors, was chosen to do most of the catching and she rose to the occasion to become one of the most respected catchers in the region. She also filled in at shortstop when she was not catching. Michelle was second in the batting order and finished up second highest in batting average. Tracie Holobosky was the spark plug of the team as lead off hitter and pitched to a 5-2 record, but started at shortstop when Rosemary pitched.

Rounding out the starting team was Donna Pflanz at third base, Barbara Perkins at second base, Carla Paccio at first base, JoAnn Lenkiewicz-Lane in right field, Beth Herrick in center, and Lori Harris in left field. The strength of the team came from the blend of all these players. Diann Benowski and Cindy White, although not everyday starters, supported their team by coming off the bench in many games with a positive attitude and a great desire to contribute.

In conclusion, the Lady Hornet team may have two all Region selections in Rosemary and Michelle. In addition, Rosemary is being considered for Junior College All-American. The girls are very pleased with their season and especially the two no-hitters Rosemary pitched and the press coverage they received. We are certain that seasons such as this one will encourage future athletes to consider Broome CC as a fine place to continue their education and athletic pursuits.

Men's Tennis

Men's Tennis nets a smashing season and a trip to Florida

The 1981-82 tennis season was very good to Coach Oz Winters. With starting 4 freshmen, it's hard to know how things will go. But they (the team) peaked at the tourney." The team this year brought in an impressive 11-3 record, raising Mr. Winters' overall record for 14 years to 186-33.

The team took first place in the regional tourney held here at Broome and won a place in the national tournament in Florida.

Jim DeMascio, number 6 player on the team, came out in first in overall play for the team with a 19-3 record. Freshman Jerome Kilmer was 2nd with 17-6; freshman Fred Hamden was 3rd with 16-7; Senior Dave McLaughlin was 4th with 14-7; Freshman Hooman Koohyar was 5th with 14-8; and Freshman Phil Whickam was 6th with 12-9.

The team looked good this year and next year Oz will be going for yet another undefeated season of play here at B.C.C.

ADMINISTRATION

Donald W. Beattie
President of
Broome Community College

Dear Graduate:

The investment in a college education is becoming a venture which requires great care. Whether you have completed your academic program of study at Broome Community College and plan to go immediately into the work force or expect to transfer elsewhere, you have given considerable thought and spent good money on your educational pursuits, to date. The substance of your work at the college, in part, will be a measure of your success in the world of work. If you learned well, you will be prepared for the responsibilities which lie ahead.

Now, you are in the arena where your higher learning will not only benefit you and your employer, but you are in a position to strengthen the fiber and decision-making process of our country. The nation is in a situation wherein both positive thinking and creativity are needed to assist in managing its affairs. The problems facing the nation must also be resolved at state and local government levels.

Your help is needed to make our democracy continue to work! To echo Thomas Jefferson: "I know of no safe depository of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves." In a recent Carnegie Foundation essay, the author noted that "As a nation, we are becoming civically illiterate." Not only must formal and informal educational processes assist in improving upon this difficult dilemma, but you and I as college graduates must also help resolve this situation.

Educators can bring such courses as civics back into the curriculum, as well as introduce core curriculum and degree programs which emphasize better ways to educate ourselves as citizens in this period of complex decisionmaking. And, education must become a lifelong process even for the college graduate.

Graduates from higher education college such as Broome can improve upon our lot as a nation and world by participating in coursework which focuses on: contemporary issues; how decisions are made in social, political, economic, constitutional and cultural spheres; and understanding local, national, and international issues.

As appropriate, you could also become part-time teachers of persons in our society who daily make decisions often without correct information, a verified base of knowledge or a good scope of understanding of complex data. Business leaders, politicians, civil servants, labor leaders, clergymen, educators, corporate and administrative staff personnel all need to understand and debate real life case study issues in concert with each other, both in the educational setting as well as in the real life arena.

I'm challenging you to join me and other educators at the college to encourage the return of civic education to both our students, our graduates, and our community leaders. Let me know your thoughts.

Congratulations and thank you for continuing your interest in Broome Community College.

Director of Student Activities

1981-82 will be remembered as a year of active involvement in the Student Activities program. Despite a sluggish national economy and reduced funding to education, a record number of students enrolled at B.C.C. Clubs and organizations actively recruited members and conducted meaningful events. Students will recall excellent noon-hour attractions, high energy mixers, Jack Anderson, the famous Spring Picnic, 200 lively participants of Winter Carnival at the Pines, daily movies, skating parties, an evening of dinner/theater/dancing, kids fun day, Rocky Glen Family Picnic, Brewery & Winery tours, field trips, stimulating discussions at U.S.G. and Club Council meetings, claiming an award for outstanding service to campus clubs, a fine yearbook, interesting issues of the Fulcrum, and so much more . . .

To those students who went the extra mile in providing a quality activity program for the entire campus to enjoy . . . we say . . . THANK YOU. Hopefully, while at B.C.C. you mixed academics and activities in the right proportion and became a total person. Good luck and keep us posted.

Maureen Boyd
Assistant to Director of Student Activities

The 1982 Citadel would like to recognize Maureen Boyd for:

all of her unending time and patience she has given to the students at Broome Community College. Being the advisor to U.S.G. is just part of Maureen's job. She has sat in and advised the student on many issues ranging from budgets to laws and policies. She has guided, helped, and supported the students through the difficult times and we wish to thank Maureen for all of her hard work and dedication.

Maureen will be leaving her position at Broome, and we wish her the best of luck.

As the plaque in her office reads:

Special Thanks

Rob Fiester & Amy Nowalk; True Love Always

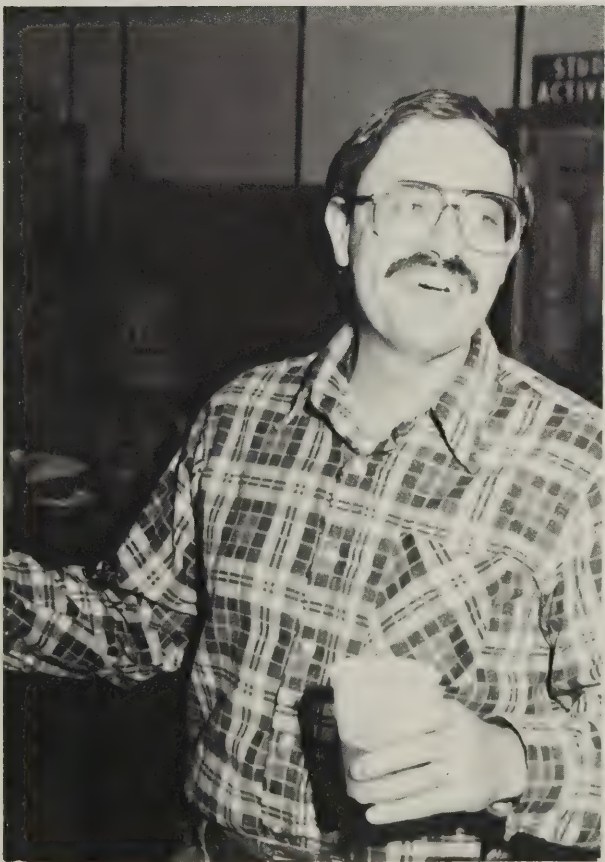

I never knew when I took this job that I would have to write something. How is it I always end up doing what I do the worst? Classes are over, graduation is over, summer is here and the yearbook is complete! Back in May of 1981, when I was offered the job of Co-editor, I was a little apprehensive but also very excited. Thanks to the help and support of my Co-editor Jim Cribbs, my advisor Jim Gormley, and Bill Celano, our yearbook representative, I was able to get right into the swing of things.

This job enabled me to see a part of Broome Community College that has made this year the best! I have gotten involved in USG, Budgets, Media Board, Clubs, Program Board, Union Board, and more. Most of all it has been the people I have met that have made it worth while. I am not going to name all of them, they know who they are, but I would like to mention one person who has not only give me support but has been a friend. That person is Maureen Boyd. The Citadel has recognized Maureen for all the help she has given to the students and I want to thank her for all the fun she has shared.

Well, the yearbook can't be complete unless I give this to Judy to type so we can send it on to be published. Thanks again to all who have made this year the best. Next year I will be at LeMoyne College and who knows, I may just be working on another yearbook. I guess I'll never learn.

Debra Bonafino

During my second semester at Broome, I had some time to kill and decided to join the Citadel staff. I had worked on my high school yearbook in Sidney so I thought I would have no problems relearning the trade. Little did I know then that within a month of joining the proletariat Jim Gormley would ask me to be Co-editor of the book. With special thanks to Maureen Boyd, Bill Celano, and Angelo Zuccolo's theater crew, the 1981 Citadel was completed.

Now, due to the monumental efforts of an entirely different cast of talented students, the 1982 Citadel is ready for Bill Celano to take to be published. I believe fully that this book is a good edition of the Citadel, but, as always, I must leave the final judgement to you and your treasure box of memories.

It is difficult for me to express my sincere gratitude and congratulations to the dedicated group of people who assisted me in putting the book together, especially my Co-editor, Debby Bonafino, my publisher, Bill Celano, my advisor, Jim Gormley, and the flashy crew at Varden Studios. The thanks that I could possibly offer would never be enough. In addition to these people, I must thank my parents for all of the support, cooperation, and gas money that I have received from them.

With the completion of this yearbook, I have fulfilled my last responsibility to the heirarchy of the college and to you its students. As I leave my position, I leave behind a large piece of my life that lies within the covers of this book. Also, I leave you with a scrapbook of the history that we made together during this past year. Finally, I leave without the several bottles of aspirin I had when I walked in a year and a half ago.

What I take with me, though, is far greater than that which I leave behind for I will take with me the fond memories of the wild and crazy times that Debby, the staff, and I had putting the book together, along with the precious friendships that evolved during that time. Thanks for everything, it's been fun.
